SUSAN’S TALKING POINTS

Susan B. Mead, author, survivor, and an individual who has dealt with multiple losses, is an empathetic, powerful, sought-after speaker with real answers to life’s tough questions. As a woman who lost a sister to suicide, a son to drugs and alcohol, her husband’s sister and brother-in-law to cancer, and was witness to the Boston Marathon bombing from the grandstands, Susan has experienced her share of loss. She has felt the gracious hand of God caress her broken heart, allowing her to give viewers, readers and audiences a snapshot of the blessings they can find through heart wrenching pain, even through the unexpected loss of several loved ones.

Endorsements for Dance With Jesus: From Grief to Grace

"I am thrilled that Susan Mead has captured these stories with her genuine warmth and passionate faith; in a way that they resonate to the core of one's being to lift the spirit as you read this book. Dance with Jesus: From Grief to Grace is a divine recipe to feed anyone hungering for hope. It is a beautiful story that shares tender morsels of goodness to help heal the soul one page at a time. I encourage you to take up this book, and remember how to dance."

— Dr. Jen Welter, First Female Coach in the NFL with the Arizona Cardinals

"Susan has personally experienced one of the deepest forms of grief. Yet she writes this treasure of a book from her point of grace not grief. I plan to give this book to any of my friends that find themselves crying and needing someone who deeply understands."

— Lysa TerKeurst, NY Times Best Selling Author of The Best Yes, President of Proverbs 31 Ministries

"As human beings, it's difficult to understand why bad things happen to good people. As Susan shares their story, we are reminded that the Holy Spirit comes to comfort us, Abba Father longs to wrap His loving arms around us and Jesus Christ waits to dance - if we only take His hands."

— Richard Wright, CEO & President, AdvoCare International, LLP., Ernst & Young Entrepreneur of The Year Award Winner 2013

"Susan B. Mead has written a phenomenal book. She is a living example of what she teaches."

— Jack Canfield, multiple NY Times bestselling author, Originator of Chicken Soup for the Soul® series

"As you read Dance with Jesus your heart will be touched and challenged to cherish the times you have with loved ones and the blessings you have in life. Susan Mead helps capture and direct our priorities with her stories and thought provoking questions. This book shows us how God enables us to dance and live in victory even when faced with such grief."

— Tim Hancock, Coaches Director Fellowship of Christian Athletes

"THIS is the work of an amazing mom and a stellar woman - a true friend - a mentor - a leader - everything all of us would wish to be. This is her legacy work for her son, and the inspiring journey she took when he left this life. I love someone who stands for such great things and creates inspiration at every turn. Get ready for one of the most inspirational authors of our time and her first of many great works."

— Mary Agnes Antonopoulos, Kick-A Writer, Social Strategist & Branding Expert

Why the Book?

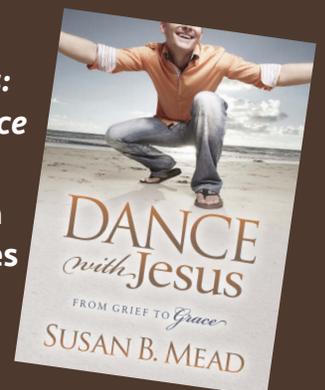

Susan B. Mead encountered a question in a bible study that changed her life, "What does God want you to do right now?" Susan's answer simply flowed onto paper, requiring a bit more space than provided. Her answer became the book Dance With Jesus: From Grief to Grace — a #1 Amazon Hot New Release on Christian Grief.

Susan gives readers a snapshot of the blessings they can find through heart wrenching pain, even through the unexpected loss of several loved ones in her book. Susan doesn't pretend that grieving is easy, but Dance With Jesus proves that healing is possible. Full of astounding stories and heartwarming lessons, Dance With Jesus: From Grief to Grace will pull at the reader's heartstrings and provide hope for a new day.
